wealers reached this city to-day on foot, and marched through town to the music of a martial band and bearing various banners and United States flags. After resting a few moments in the park, where one of their number made an anti-monopoly speech, they were escorted to a grove south of the city, where they partook of a dinner donated by citizens. They are marching to Madison, from which point they expect to obtain transportation by river to Pittsburg.

Kelly at Ottumwa. OTTUMWA, Ia., May 14.-The Mayor and City Council met Kelly and his navy at Eddyville and told him he could expect provisions, etc., if he would pass through the city and camp three miles below. Kelly accepted the terms and moved from Eddyville to-day. The city is guarded by two hundred extra officers. Kelly's boats soon began to arrive here. Ten thousand people were in town to witness the sight. The boats floated under guard to camp, where the biggest supply of provisions yet served was received. There was a small rlot at Kelly's camp this evening. The Mayor of Ottumwa hired and paid for grounds for the army to camp on. When the men arrived the owner of the ground demanded an admission of 10 cents to enter. After a number had paid Kelly arrived and demanded that it be stopped. Trouble followed and a free fight was in progress when the Mayor arrived and decided in Kelly's favor. The army will go to Eldon to-morrow.

Teller Expresses Sympathy. PUEBLO, Col., May 14.-Senator Teller, in a letter to a citizen of this city expressing sympathy for the Coxey army now in Washington, declares the arrest and trial of Coxey, Browne and Jones was a farce, and concludes: "It is difficult to know what to do with these people, who are here in distress, with thousands of others, through no fault of theirs. They know there is something wrong somewhere, and that there ought to be a remedy, and can think of no other except what Congress can give. I, myself, believe the present dreadful condition of our laboring and producing people is the direct and immediate result of bad legislation already on our statute books, and other that is threatened, but I have no hope of immediate legislation that will give the required relief. What will happen in the near future I cannot see, and believe for my peace of mind it is well I cannot.

General Fitzgerald in Jail. PHILADELPHIA, May 14.-Michael D. Fitzgerald, leader of the New England Coxeyites, is languishing in the county prison to-day, together with Lani Kalangraff and Joseph Wembloth, of this city, where they were sent in default of $300 bail by Magistrate Kane. The men were arrested while holding a meeting on South Third street. At the hearing to-day feader Fitzgerald testified that he had nothing to do with yesterday's anarchistic demonstration, but officer Kasper, who arrested him, testified that at the meeting a collection was taken up, and Fitzgerald received the entire amount, $1.87, which was proof that he was more than a spectator. The New England commonwealers were to have resumed their march to-day, but the detention of Fitzgerald has interfered with their GRANGER, Wyo., May 14.-General Scheffler was captured at Green River, Wyo., last night by Marshal Rankin. Scheffler had reached Green River at 3 p. m., on the passenger train from the west, and spent the afternoon soliciting supplies for the army. He disclaimed all contion with the army, and exhibited a Union Pacific ticket from Portland to Kansas City, and said he would sue the United States for infringing on his rights as an American citizen in placing him under arrest. Marshal Rankin took him to Cheyenne. The marshal's special train proceeded to Cokeville, where two hundred industrials were camped in box cars. Scheffier's entire commonweal army, numbering 220, were placed under arrest.

IT'S AN UGLY AFFAIR

Fight Between Friends of Landis and Johnston More Bitter.

Henry Koch Played Crazy and Escaped from Prison-Drake Murder Trial Now on at Greensburg.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HAMMOND, Ind., May 14.-The bitter feeling against the Johnston men who stole the train chartered by the friends of Charles B. Landis to take his delegation to the Crown Point convention last Saturday has by no means lessened. Letters from all parts of the district have been received by the Landis workers asking for full particulars. Many persons who were formerly Johnston supporters denounce the act as an outrage, and declare that if they had known the facts they would not have supported him in the convention. That the scheme was prearranged there can be no doubt, as persons have come forth since with statements proving the fact. The Johnston workers themselves acknowledge that it was disastrous to his interests, and fear the result will be the nomination of Landis. An indignation meeting was neld in this city to-night and a Landis club was organized, with Stephen Ripley as president; C. C. Griffin, vice president; George A. Moson, recording secretary, and W. G. Friedley, corresponding secretary. A committee on resolutions, composed of F. F. Friedley, L. H. Johnson and P. H. Lowle, was appointed, who presented resolutions condemning the actions of the Johnston men in stealing the train; declaring that the issuing of the call for the convention at Crown Point was invalid and not issued in accordance with the instructions of the district central committee; denouncing "the actions of certain corporations in packing the convention with their employes," and appealing to every true Republican in the Tenth congressional district to "use his personal efforts toward the nomination of Charles B. Landis, and by so doing forever put the seal of Republican disapproval on the tactics that smack so loudly of Democracy."

The meeting was largely attended and 151 signed the roll of membership. Another meeting is called for Wednesday night, when it is expected that at least five hundred of the representative young business men of North township will have become members. Word reached here tonight from Whiting station that a meeting was also in progress for the purpose of forming a Landis club at that place.

The Chicago Inter Ocean has the followng as the Johnston story of the affair last Saturday: "The special from Hammond regarding the Republican convention at Crown Point did great injustice to Judge Johnston and the nine hundred Republicans from Hammond who supported Judge Johnston for Congress. The facts are that the friends of Judge Johnston engaged a train of five coaches to carry a delegation of four hundred to leave Hammond before noon. When the crowd arrived it was found that the train would not accommodate more than half the crowd, so four more coaches were attached to the train, and were soon filled with men wearing Johnston badges. The Landis side had engaged a train of three coaches, which was to leave Hammond an hour later. The Johnston delegation was taken to Crown Point and the train returned to Hammond immediately. At a few minutes past noon the agent of the Erie tendered the train to Mr. Landis himself, and was told that they did not want it, as less than two hundred men were on hand to accompany Landis.'

HE PLAYED CRAZY.

Clever Dodge of a Convict Who Escaped from Jeffersonville. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., May 14.-The sensational escape of Henry Koch, a convict of the Prison South, early Saturday morning has just leaked out. Koch was sent up from Daviess county about nine months since to serve a three years' term for grand larceny. On reaching the prison he was ordered to work in a shop of the Patton Hollow Ware Company. Two weeks ago he informed one of the guards that he "had an egg in his head," and when seen a few days later beating his head against the brick wall of the penitentiary he stated that he was trying to knock the egg out of his head. A few days later an old shoe was found in his possession with a hole cut in the heel and also in the toe. He explained the possession of this curio by saying that he used it as a telescope in endeavoring to locate Coxey's army. This and other similar demonstrations per suaded Warden Patten, Deputy Howard and others that he was insane, and he was accordingly locked up in the "crazy" house, which is a box-shaped concern eight feet square and is located on the floor of one of the shops. Dr. Payton, the prison physician, was sent for, and after examining the man pronounced him perfectly sane, and advised that he be sent back to work. This was done, but his singular actions continuing. Warden Patten again became convinced that the man was crazy, and he was sent to the "crazy" house a second time. While confined here he secured a piece of a circular saw, which is supposed to have been given him by a fellow-convict. and here his craziness suddenly left him and he showed his cunning by sawing a hole through the roof, sliding from there to the ground, and, finding a pick in the yard, tunneled a hole under a temporary board wall and, crawling through, escaped. Nothing has since been heard of him. The escape was the most cunning ever executed by a convict in the Prison South.

THE DRAKE TRIAL.

Called for Hearing at Greensburg and Preliminary Statements Made.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENSBURG, Ind., May 14.- The murder case of Ralph Drake, which came here on a change of venue, was commenced this afternoon. A jury was selected and the opening statements of the prosecution and defense were made to the jury. The prosecution claims that Ralph Drake shot Mrs. Ida Ward three times, each ball taking effect in her head; that she and Drake were in a room in a boarding house; that a desperate struggle ensued between them, and that this struggle was brought about by Drake to compel her to dispose of her farm, worth about $10,000, which she had inherited from her father's estate. Ida Ward was the wife of John Ward and the mother of two little girls. She became completely infatuated with Drake, and she was ready to meet him at all times. Drake kept a general store at St. Louis Crossing. The building was burned, and Drake received the insurance and equandered considerable money. He drank a great deal, and the defense claims that he was insane at the time of the shooting. The defense also claims that Ida Ward was not a pure woman, and that she had been talked about from her girlhood days until she was killed. The prosecution is represented by M. D. Emig. W. M. Waltman, of Columbus, and Prosecuting Attorney D. A. Myers, of this city; the defense by Hacker & Remy, of Columbus, and Judge John D. Miller, of this place. A large crowd was present, inciuding friends of the two families. Both families are among the best people of Bartholom: w county, and the trial is attracting much attention.

CONTROVERSY WITH MINISTERS. Russell B. Harrison's Car Line a

Terre Haute Gets Him Criticised. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., May 14.-Russell B. Harrison, who is president of the Terre Haute Street-railway Company, has had a controversy with a committee representing the ministerial alliance of the city and has come out decidedly in the lead. A week ago this morning the alliance appointed a committee to protest against Sunday band music and a "carousal" at Collett Park, to which one of the street-car lines runs. One of the clergymen notified the alliance that Mr. Harrison had assured him that there would be no more "carousal" or "merrygo-round," but nevertheless the committee published a card bitterly protesting against doing so. Mr. Harrison replied in a protest on his part against being misrepre-sented, and argued that the people ought to have the full benefits of the park which the late Josephus Collett gave the city. The committee replied in effect that it did not believe him when he promised that there would be no "carousal," whereupon the Infantry, and is said to have been a brave editor of the Gazette, who is a park com-missioner, went after them for being so un-charitable, and saying that the commis-sioners did believe him. Yesterday the people turned out en masse to spend Sun-day at the park, there being the largest attendance in the history of the park.

PARKER AND M'AFEE. Judge Johnson Will Pronounce the Sentence To-Morrow Morning.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKLIN, Ind., May 14.-Judge Johnson announced to-day that judgment would be rendered on the verdict in the Parker-McAfee case on Wednesday morning, at 9 o'clock, when the defendants will receive the sentence of life imprisonment imposed by the jury in the recent trial. Attorney Kealing came down this morning and held a conference with Parker and McAfee at the jail. The defendants and their parents had been disposed to have the motion for a new trial pushed before the court, but concluded, after consultation, that it would not be advisable. Only a formal motion for a new trial will be made, and that with the understanding that it will be over-ruled by the court. Mr. Kealing expressed himself as very well pleased with the verdict rendered. Parker and McAfee still stoutly affirm their innocence. McAfee's purported speech in court, which he announced he would make, will probably be but a public denial of any participation upon his part in the Eyster murder. The prisoners have been very well behaved during their confinement here, and have given the jailer but little trouble.

The Heath and Verdin machine, upon proper matrix material, from touch of keys in a keyboard, impresses steel dies or type so as to form any line or number of lines, leaded or solid, of any width of column or page desired. Each machine is intended to carry six fonts of type, each font having 140 characters, and every Roman font having its corresponding italic font. The op-erator can change the font in three seconds, and can set up four thousand ems of perfectly justified matter per hour. The matrix produced can be sent anywhere by mail. The company, when fully organized, will be one of very large capital and will claim the world as its field.

The Boys Are Striking Hard.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., May 14.-The boy helpers who have been on strike at the Muncie flint-glass works for five days past did not keep their promise made Saturday to the effect that they would return to work to-day and the strike is still on. The boys gave in on Saturday, saying that they were ready to take their old places, and the management was happy, as it is a hard matter to find boys enough to fill the places in the Muncie glass factories. This morning the hundred or so blowers reported for work, but found none of the striking boys present. They had held a meetstrike. The glass company is at a great loss to know what steps to take, as it is utterly impossible to fill the places with

MEETING OF MINERS

Scale to Be Presented to the Operators To-Day-Old Rates to Be Demanded-Other Labor News.

CLEVELAND, May 14.-There was a large attendance of miners at the meeting here to-day, called for the purpose of arranging a conference with the operators, who are to assemble to-morrow. Nothing of importance was accomplished by the convention to-day, and it was decided to hold another session in the morning, at which the scale committee will make a report. Each delegate who is a member of the committee will state the rate of wages paid in his district before the strike and at present. These reports will be taken down by the secretary and will form a basis for the scale which will be presented to the oper-

Many of the miners are congregated at their hotels to-night discussing the probable outcome of the conference, which is to be held at 2 o'clock to-morrow. While the officers refuse to be interviewed, they all express confidence as to the result, and they are apparently all opposed to any compromise. They feel that they are justified in demanding a restoration of the old scale in all the States, and many of them are inclined to believe that the operators will grant their demands. While many of the Ohio operators are undoubtedly in favor of restoring the old rate, they are chary about saying so. They all hint at some sort of a compromise, and 60 cents a ton in Ohio, with a corresponding rate in other States, is talked of as about right. The twelve bolters from the Pittsburg convention, who declared that they would not attend the conference, will reach the city late to-night, and it is said by a man who claims to know their intentions that they will try to prevent a settlement. They are, he says, opposed to any recognition of the miners' union or to any concessions whatever. - Thirty-four other Pennsylvania operators will go into the conference with a determination to abide by its decision. It is utterly impossible to predict the result of the conference to-night, for in the absence of any agreement on the part of either the miners or operators it cannot be sald how far each side is willing to go in the way of making concessions.

Mr. Howard said that the presence of Mr. Dats in the city did not mean that any new radical move was to be taken with read to the Pullman strike. "We have gone into this fight to win," said He. "Of course we would consent to arbitration, although our experience in arbitrating the Great Northern strike does not seem to prove the matters adjusted by arb tration are al-ways finally settled." PEIXOTO RETALIATES

He Orders Portugal's Representatives to Withdraw from Brazil.

Outcome of the Action of Portuguese Officers in Assisting Rebels to Escape-Riots in Newfoundland.

WASHINGTON, May 14.-Serbor Mendonca, the Brazilian minister, to-day received the following cablegram from his government:

"The President of the republic has sus-pended diplomatic relations with Portugal, giving passports to Count Paraty and the personnel of the Portuguese legation in Rio, and ordered the Brazilian legation in Lis-bon to withdraw."

This rupture of diplomatic relations is the direct result of the action of the Portuguese naval commanders in Rio in affording asylum to the Brazilian rebels. When Da Gama abandoned his fleet in the harbor, March 13 last, he took his followers aboard the Portuguest men-of-war Mindello and Alfonso de Albuquerque, where they were sheltered. The Brazilian government preferred a demand for their surrender, holding that as the refugees were taken aboard the Portuguese vessels within territorial waters they could not claim a sum and should be submitted to trial by the Brazilian courts. The Portuguese commanders refused to surrender the rebels, and the next day sailed away to the river Platte. The refugees were the cause of much trouble to their hosts, for after some ugly complications with Uruguayan authorities growing out of the violation of quarantine regulations, the Portuguese commanders permitted a number of refugees to escape on an Argentine vessel. They were re-captured, but this involved the Portuguese in a dispute with the Argentine government, the result of which was that they I to Rive attained liberty on Argentine soil. Meanwhile Brazil had not abated her claim, and insisted that Portugal return the refugees. Clearly this could not be done, so the result is as announced in the foregoing cablegram, a rupture between the parent country and Brazil. What the outcome will be cannot be predicted. Minister Mendonea. when seen to-day, avoided discussion of the future course of his government. The rupture of diplomatic relations is sometimes tantamount to a declaration of war, but it is scarcely likely to be so serious in this case. It is difficult to see how the Portuguese government can conciliate Brazil, although this might be accomplished by the surrender of Admiral Da Gama, who is reported to be en route to Portugal, and an ample apology. Portuguese pride, historical in its obstinacy, will probably stand in the way of any such concessions, and it is more probable that the two nations will continue to stand in an unfriend ly attitude toward each other until time mollifies the outraged feelings of the Bra-

Rival Political Factions Having a "Merry" Time in the Island. ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 14.-Rioting continues in Bay Deverde, but a speedy termination of the trouble is considered certain, as the English man-of-war Cleopatra, which arrived here this evening, will sail for that place to-morrow. The whole district is in commotion and fights are frequent. Meetings of the several candidates are invaded by opposing factions and a struggle then takes place until one crowd wins. The victorious party then installs its own candidates and proceeds to hold a meeting on its own account, while the members of the beaten party scour the place in search of reinforcements. Securing these they return to do battle for possession of the meeting place. Colonial Secretary Merine was attacked at Broad Cove on Friday night, but drew a revolver and threatened to shoot if any one attempted to lay hands upon him. He then got a hearing, though he was attacked again under cover of darkness after the meeting closed and was somewhat injured, Several other government speakers were attacked in other localities. The Whitewayites were attacked and assaulted at Fresh Water, Perry's Cove, and the platforms from which they were to

were driven from the village, followed by yelling crowds. It is impossible to conjecture how the election will terminate. Both parties declare that their success is certain. Meanwhile the leaders of each are sending reinforcements to the various districts where elections will be held. Sir William Whiteway, lately Premier, started for Bay Deverde to-day. Premier Goodwidge will follow on Wednesday. The ringleaders of the rioting are under arrest, and police are stationed throughout the district. Both sides are in an angry mood, and serious complications could easily be originated, as many of the people are very ignorant

Fight at a Funeral. BELFAST, May 14.-There was a serious encounter between Nationalists and Orangemen, near Portadown, county of Armagh, to-day. The trouble arose during the prog-ress of a funeral procession, which was es-corting the body of an Orangeman to the cemetery. The Orangemen in the procession became incensed by the comments of the Nationalists, and a row was precipitated, during which some of the Orangemen used revolvers, and two of the oppos-ing party were wounded. The police stop-
